TRAGIC END OF ANDREW CONLIN

Former Sonoma Boy Was Found With a Rifle Ball Through Head at Weaverville

Andrew Conlin, formerly of this place and a brother of Mrs. John Wagnon met a tragic death in far away Trinity County Sunday. He was found with a rifle ball through his head in the rear of the hotel where he had been staying at Weaverville Although the Coroner's jury brought in a verdict of suicide, aside from the fact that the rifle alongside of the body was the property of the dead man there was no other evidence to throw light on the tragic fate of the deceased. He had been in the employ of the Valdor Dredging Company which had shut down and was spending his time prospecting. Of one claim he had staked out he often wrote to Hamil Wagnon his nephew. The last news from him was received by his Sonoma relatives in May.

Those who saw Conlin prior to his tragic end, say he was in the best of health and spirits. He was known to have been sober and industrious and had no enemies or apparent trouble of any kind. The family are at a loss to understand his sad fate.

Upon the receipt of telegraphic advices of the tragedy, Mrs. Senne of San Francisco, eldest sister of deceased, hastened to the North and after identifing the remains as those of her brother had the body shipped to Oakland where the interment took place Wednesday. Mrs. Wagnon and son went down from here to be in attendance at the last sad rites.

Andie Conlin was at one time employed on the dredger Nevada at McGills and will be remembered by many old friends. He was 42 years of age.

The ladies of St. Francis Catholic church are requested to meet every Thursday at the convent to assist in the preparation for the coming Fair.

Rev. D. E. Bushwell, an old pioneer of Sonoma, who not long ago celebrated his golden wedding died at his home in Chattanoga, Tennessee July 19th. He was 75 years of age.

REPORT ON HIGHWAY PROGRESS

Work on the Black Point draw bridge is progressing rapidly, the piling is all driven, and on the south side of the river the concrete abutment is almost completed. This abutment is where the draw portion of the bridge will rest. It is 21 feet wide by more than 40 feet in length and is of solid concrete to a depth of 43 feet below the water line. On the north side of the river the end of the draw—a lift draw will rest on concrete piles. The draw will have an opening of 120 feet in the clear.

On the north side of the river the road is all graded except the section across the marsh land leading to the bridge, and the contractors have commenced work on this section, expecting to have it completed in November.

The superintendent of the bridge construction reports that the bridge will be completed in December. The plan of the highway commission is to have the grading on the south side completed by the time the bridge is finished so that travel can be allowed by Christmas.

The Chamber of Commerce of Santa Rosa hos made an appeal directly to Governor Johnson to get Santa Rosa's portion of the State Highway under way. Mr. Nagle, secretary of the organization says in his letter to the governor, "The people of this section feel that they have not been treated fairly in the matter of the construction of the highway in this section. Sonoma County purchased $222,000 worth of state highway bonds but so far we have very little highway to show for that amount of money."

After speaking of the present condition of the roads which makes travel almost impossible between Santa Rosa and Cotati in the winter time Mr. Nagle writes. "It will oe a crying shame if something is not done by the commission to relieve the situation before the winter rains commence, I must confess that the people of this entire section are up in arms as far as the highway situation is concerned."

B. Barrows and his bride of Oakland were guests of the L. S. Simmons Sunday. While here they motored to Santa Rosa with Mr. Simmons who went to meet Mr. Benoit to whom he gave an order for his Christmas goods.

The newly weds are relatives of Mr. Simmons.

Big Touring Car Crashes into Dal Pogetto Automobile at Napa and Occupants have Narrow Escape

After the ball game at Napa Sunday Newton Dal Poggetto, while driving a party of friends around town, came near meeting with a fatal accident when his car was struck by a big Kissel touring car owned by D. Quinn of San Francisco. Dal Poggetto was rounding a corner near the electric depot there and Quinn was on the wrong side of the street with the result that the two cars came together The occupants of the Sonoma car were thrown out but fortunately escaped injury although Miss Myrtle Hardy, one of the party, was quite painfully bruised. Dal Poggetto, Jack Paulson and a young Calistoga lady escaped without a scratch.

The owner of the Kissel car acknowledges fault in the matter and will pay the repair bill for Dal Poggetto.

City Trustee Dal Poggetto and family were waiting in Napa to make the trip home and Newton was on his way to get them when the accident occured.

WORK BEGINS ON FLOWERY SCHOOL

Contractor Wm. Gowan has started work on the new Flowery School building and it is expected that the up-to-date and artistic structure voted by the people of that district will be ready for occupancy in about 45 days. The building is designed according to the latest approved plans for school buildings and among its sanitary features will be a drinking fountain of great beauty.

As a resident of Fetters Springs said in discussing the improvement "one cannot be too flowery in our speeches about the new Flowery school," which very aptly describes the pride of the people up there in the new educational structure.

PINNED DOWN BY MAD STEER

Hazen Cowan, the daring participant in the rodeo at Salinas was painfully injurned during the contest there when one of the mad steers with which he was performing turned upon the fearless rider and pinned him to the ground with its horns. Fortunately the animal gored Cowen in the arm instead of a vital part and the injury while painful is not regarded as serious Hazen Cowan is the son of the James Cowans of Bennett Valley and a Wild West performer of note.

NEW ASSESSMENT ROLL DATA

County Assessor J. C. Hoke Smith has completed the assessment roll of Sonoma County for the year 1916. The total assessment is $38,381,705. Of this sum $36,764,950 is non-operative property assessed for county purposes, and $1,616,755 is operative property of railroad and public service corporations and that goes to the State.

This years total assessment shows a decrease of $470,095 from last year. This is explained principally by the falling off in the amount of wine made last year by the small dealers and which was purchased by the California Wine Association and shipped to Winehaven prior to the first Monday in March. This covers the largest item in the shortage over last year.

Sonoma City's assessed valuation is as follows: Real estate $167,645, improvements $281,690, personal property, $86,105, total $499,440.

Dr. Charles Von Geldern, who was born in Sonoma in 1885, son of Otto Von Geldern, has returned to California from New Orleans and is enjoying a vacation from his duties. He is professor of Anatony in the State University of Louisiana and has charge of a university department. He graduated from the University of California in 1909 and passed his medical examinations subsequently with high honors. He is a member of the Alpha Kappa fraternity and of the medical fraternity Kappa, Kappa, Alpha. He will return to his University in two months to remain away from his native state another year.

Constable Murray was kept busy this week trying too apprehend the perpetrators of the robberies, one at the Methodist Parsonage and the other at the Sorini wine cellars.

Joe Keechler of the Jones ranch has received his swell new Hudson Super Six car and is proud of the handsome machine.

FLAMES MENACE SUMMER HOMES

Hills Back of Resorts Take Fire Which Sweeps Through Brush With Alarming Rapidity Thursday. Little Damage Other Than to Pasture Reported

A forest fire which is said to have had its origin in the carlessness of campers burned over the hills north west of town Thursday menacing many picturesque summer homes in the vicinity of Sonoma Higlands and destroying many hundred acres of pasture land.

The fire was very hot and extremely strubborn and the summer colony was thrown into a panic as the flames leaped up the canyon and the wind at times became brisk and threatened a catastrophe. No damage was reported except in the vicinity of Cazes resort in the hills back of which two tents belonging to Schillers and one belonging to Gibsons furnished food for the fire. None of the large resorts were ever seriously menaced but at some of the smaller places trunks were packed and preparations made for a hurried departure.

Fire fighters from different parts of the valley responded to the call for help and many more were in readiness to go had they been needed. Joe Ryan made a special trip during the afternoon to the scene of the conflagration and was ready to call volunteers but with the men on the scene all that could be done was being accomplished. The water supply of the various residence tracts was safe guarded and cattle driven out of the danger zone—eighteen head belonging to Leveroni & Maffei having been rescued from the old Wooster ranch. The fire raged all afternoon and toward evening went up the canyon crossing the ridge into the Napa County where at midnight it was burning with renewed fury.

The report of the conflagration was greatly exaggerated away from here. As a matter of fact the country except in the heart of the hills looks as though it had not been the prey of a forest fire and all the resorts are amply protected from the inroads of similar conflagration.

Blair Hart, candidate for Supervisor, was in town Saturday and his popularity among our people was evident.

Mrs Parrish, assistant to John Plover in the work of the Juvenile Court of Sonoma County, was in town Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Pera spent Sunday in Antioch and on Monday went to San Francisco via the Santa Fe, where they spent the day.

PLIGHT TROTH AT TRINITY CHURCH

Miss Helena Clewe and W. T. Holt Take Solemn Vows at Beautiful Wedding Ceremony Thursday

Trinity Church, it altars richly draped and its sanctuary beautifully banked with the pastel hydrangea and tall marsh grasses, was the charming setting Thursday for the wedding of Miss Helena Clewe who plighted her troth to Rev. Wm. T. Holt in the presence of many relatives and friends

Miss Helena Clewe, the daughter of one of Sonoma Valley's oldest and highly respected families, was a beautiful bride. Her wedding dress was of white silk, the wide flouncing on the skirt being edged with chiffon and the waist in bodice style with rare old lace at the neck and no sleeves, most becoming neath the filmy bridal veil which enveloped her girlish form. On her arm she carried a wondrous shower bouquet of white sweet peas and maiden hair fern. To the strains of Lohengrin she came up the aisle of the church on the arm of her brother, Will Clewe and was met at the altar by the bride groom, Mr. Holt and his best man Harold Holt The beautiful Episcopalian service was performed by Rev. Mr. Cambridge of San Mateo.

After the ceremony the families of the happy young couple were driven to the Clewe home where a dainty al fresco wedding breakfast was served in the beautiful garden

The presents received by the young couple were many and beautiful. The Parish gift was a solid silver tea service. There were also gifts of cut glass, bric-a-brac, pictures and exquisite needle work.

Among the relatives at the church were Mrs. Frederick T. Duhring, who wore a becoming costume of lavender, Mrs. Will Clewe, who was gowned in salmon pink taffeta, Miss Doris Clewe in cream lace and cloth of gold, Mrs. Fredo Clewe, white crepe de chine, Miss Marie Clewe, pale blue taffeta, Mrs C. T. Ryland; white mull embroideried at the hem in morning glory design, Mrs. M. Clewe and Mrs. M. Stearns, black silk, Miss Riench, cream lace and black silk. Miss Ruth Kincaid of Berkeley, finance of Fredrick Duhring, Jr., was also among those present. Harold Hotz and Murray Foster were the ushers.

The bride is the winsome and talented daughter of Mrs. M. Clewe and her beautiful voice and charming personality has made her a great favorite both in church and social circles. Mr. Holt, the groom, is a splendid young man and is the popular resident pastor of the local Episcopal Church. He comes from a fine old Southern family and is highly educated.

Rev. and Mrs. Holt are to reside on Broadway after a short honeymoon on which they departed amid the heartiest congratulations on Thursday afternoon's train.

KILLED BY ACCIDENT IN OAKLAND

Mrs. Burns Walls of Petaluma, sister-in-law of James A. Walls, well known here, was killed in Oakland Tuesday when a Key Route car jumped the track and struck her. The three year old daughter who was with her was badly hurt and Mrs. Walters, her mother, had both legs broken. The sad tragedy has shocked Sonoma County. Burns Walls, the bereaved husband, is a half brother of Jim Wall's.

The victims of the accident had been visiting Mr. Wall's married sister in Oakland.

Municipal Water Will it Pay

It is a pretty well established fact that the water business in Sonoma is not a sound business proposition for a private corporation and there is a growing realization that the much talked of sentiment which is synonomous with the Vallejo system has really after all been the sentiment of the Vallejo heirs for the town their fore father founded and to whom in duty bound they have felt they must supply water regardless of prosaic facts and figures with the result that they have saddled themselves with big debt at an impossible rate of interest and are now badly involved, not through any specific mismanagement or extravagance, but because they sought to conduct a business under conditions which a modern business corporation would immediately pronounce impossible. Too much competition like other extremes throttles industry in a limited field such as this.

With limited capital and limited amount of customers the development of revenue for the Sonoma City Water Works Company has been impossible. It would necessitate an expenditure of over $3000 to finish the reservoir high pressure connections and make necessary extensions in order to get the $100 per month which the City agreed to pay for fire protection. The present income is $333 per month from regular customers. The advantages that the City would have in the event of municipal ownership would be saving in City Taxes, advantages of the law in establishing City ordinances, services of a City Engineer, availability of labor for municipal purposes, services of the City Attorney, probability of obtaining the electric power cheaper (Sonoma's Water Company now has to pay 3 cents per kilowatt hour while Napa gets it for 1¼ cents) and other curtailment of expense of operation.

To increase the volume of business would have to be the aim of our tax payers in the event of it becoming a municipal proposition. It would be neccessary to obtain more consumers, not difficult as the present rates could be eventually cut in half, to charge for water used (not allow it to be wasted and used regardless as at present) to supply the municipality with water for public purposes, particularly for fire protection under the higher pressure head and to obtain therefore adequate remuneration also to supply water to the cemetery which would add to the revenue. It is not unreasonable to say that instead of $333 the income could be made to figure $600 per month. Up keep for a system supplying this service has been figured at about $450 so that the profit would be about $150 per month for the City of Sonoma.

It is estimated that under the present plan it is costing the company 11 cents a thousand gallons for water which it is selling for 9½ cents which is financial suicide and makes further improvements prohibitive. Water for domestic and fire protection purposes can be developed into a business proposition in Sonoma's field but it can only come about through municipal management and the desire to do the greatest good for the greatest number.

Not Wanted For U. S. Senate

Governor Johnson's bold attempt to go to the United States Senate from California as a Republican is being strongly denounced and the effrontery of it exposed as it should be for if there ever was a time when we needed to complete our good work of restoring power to real Republicans it is now and California should not be handicapped at Washington by the appearance of the high chief of freak legislation. In regard to Johnson's effort to get there the Argonaut says:

"It is the duty of every Republican to take immediate notice of what this candidacy and its success portend. The Republican party welcomed the return of every Progressive, as it has welcomed the return of Roosevelt. But single-handed it has fought the good fight for its principles and its existence against all the efforts of those same Progressives to destroy it. And in California no more than in Chicago will it at this time put those Progressives in the seats of power It knows what they have done in the past, it fears what they may attempt in the future.

So aside from the shame of the great Republican State of California should it have for its senators one Democrat and one partyless filibuster, the national consequences may be grave, Conceding the election of Mr. Hughes, he can not give the nation the benefit of Republican policies unless strongly supported in both houses of Congress. The Senate will be very close. There is an imperative need, which every Republican should realize, of electing a staunch and true Republican to uphold the President, rather than a political Hessian who prates of the rights of the people with his mouth, while walking on them with his feet."

Rapid Fire Political Paragraphs

A fair voter was heard to say that she was going to vote for Brete Hart for Supervisor. Nothing like being literary!

Hiram Johnson wants to be U. S. Senator. A toga might be becoming Hiram, but the becoming Senator part that's going to be difficult!

Booth and Bordwell are embarassing their friends by coming out for the U. S. Senate. The only thing we might do is to vote for both.

Senator Murphy believes in old fashioned political meetings. Talk is cheap but that needs to be regulated also

The men who own horses and those who still walk are for Weise. That's a percentage worth figuring.

Picetti is not going to "pass the buck." As a Supervisor he is apt to look like Atlas.

Speaking about the Weise glad hand and the Picetti smile, don't forget that we have a Hart.

Clarence Lea is out for Congress, but bless him he's a Democrat and ugh! a Progressive.

Evart says he isn't a Prohibitionist. Who in Sonoma Valley wanted to know?

Nice of you Hiram to lug in that campaign stuff of being for National Womans Suffrage. Petticoats have brains though. They get you!

Ed. H. Hart, Republican, knows the ropes and is going to bale the votes for Congress too.

Smooth talk dont build smooth roads.

The taxpayer is laying low now but he's going to swat the candidate that wants to spend more money.

Johnson says he is going to be just as holy in Washington D. C. as he has been in California. Hiram's holiness is sieve like holiness so he's apt to simply strain himself if he runs.

Lyman Green is out for the Assembly. We can stand for green timber rather than "dry", but Bob Madison acknowledges himself "wet" which is better yet.

After some recent elections, Gov. Johnson must have wondered that there were not more common people. Uncommon people is what we all are in Califorhia. Common is just a word used for Johnson's campaign purposes and Hearst style journalism.

MOURNS LOSS OF FINE DRESS

Mrs. Pressey Loses Velvet Gown From Trunk and Swears to a Warrant

Mrs. Violet Pressey, daughter of A. L. Wells, filed a complaint this week charging two Petaluma young ladies with appropriating a $65 gown from a local hotel. As the Petaluma girls were under age the matter was referred to the Juvenile Court.

Mrs. Pressey who lost the dress declares it was her favorite creation and thinks that the girls who occupied her room during her absence must have taken it. The alleged offenders promised Constable Murray, who saw them among the merry dancers at Fetters Saturday night, that they would appear in court here Thursday but they failed to show up at the appointed hour. Murray will now have to go after them and has promised to bring back the pretty "broilers" to answer the charge prefered against them.

Mrs. Pressey was formerly on the stage and should Judge Small have to pass judgement on the value of the costume she lost it is liable to cause his honor some loss of sleep or hair for the young woman is a swell dresser and the modiste's art of brown velvet and gold lace which runs into $65 is no easy matter to follow; indeed more jurist than one has been lost in the mazes of fashion's technicalities when discoursed on in the presence of feminine youth and beauty.

PROMINENT MEN DINE AT TOSCANO

Joseph Grace, one of Santa Rosa's prominent and wealthy citizens, paid a wager to Milton Wasserman by giving a dinner at Mine host Ciucci's Toscano hotel last Thursday evening. It was an Italian dinner de luxe and greatly enjoyed by the party of Santa Rosa gentlemen who gathered round the festive board. Those present were Jos. T. Grace, the host, Thos. C. Denny, M. L. McDonald, Jr., Thos. Maclay, J. L. Camm, Wm. Tough, David Batchelor, T. J. Geary, Ney Donovan, M. Wasserman, the winner, J. P. Overton, J. L. Williams, H. B. Whitton and Fred Duhring of this place.

MAYOR OF SPARKS NEVADA HERE

Mayor Charles Cheney and wife of Sparks, Nevada, have been here on a visit to the Cheney and Durant families.

Mr Cheney is serving his second term as Mayor of the progressive city of 3000 and reports much public improvement underway. He went to San Francisco Wednesday to arrange for the purchase of a modern fire engine for the protection of his home town The engine will cost $6000 and is standard equipment as required by the Board of Underwriters. To operate it two paid men will be employed in the fire department of Sparks. The city also has a superintendent of streets at a salary of $100 per month. This man is a working foreman and a specialist on road and street building.

Sparks has a city charter of its own which enables the city council to map out the future welfare of the municipality. It also operates under the budget plan of expenditure which Mr. Cheney declares has systemized all work and has been the means of getting the taxes for city and county down to $2.60 which considering the improvements and class of service being rendered is remarkably low. All businesses are taxed according to the volume of business done and the city derives about $1700 quarterly from the licenses. There are 16 saloons.

Sparks, while only 12 years old, is a coming town and Mr. Cheney declares its citizenship is in favor of progress and development all along the line. It is connected with Reno, three miles distant by interurban electric cars.

Mayor Cheney is foreman of the railroad shops there and is a substantial and highly thought of citizen.

STOLE CASE OF WINE

A Fallis, a half breed who has been around the Valley for about a week, found life too tame here so he proceeded to break into the depot at Agua Caliente and appropriated a 50 gallon cask of wine which he rolled to the creek and tapped. A number of Indians joined him in punishing the juice and they had a good time until Constable Murray pounced upon Fallis and arrested him. He is charged with grand larceny.

CLARENCE LEA FOR CONGRESS

District Attorney Clarence F. Lea, one of California's most prominent and brilliant District Attorneys has been accorded the nomination for Congress by the Democrats of the First District.

Mr. Lea had several rivals but at the committee meeting in San Francisco they with drew in favor of the Sonoma County man. There is no question but that Mr. Lea, the best public prosecutor Sonoma Co has ever had, will poll a big vote for Congress both the Democratic and some of the Progressive vote which formerly went to Wm. Kent being his without a doubt.

Mr. Lea's opponent will be Edward H. Hart, the staunch true blue Republican.

Clarence Lea, a brilliant speaker, will try and offset the rising tide of Republicanism by dwelling on the creation of the Tariff Commission which he claims takes the tariff out of politics.

GRASS FIRE AT EL VERANO

The entire population of El Verano was called out about noon time Monday to fight a stubborn grass fire which threatened a number of buildings in its path and many hundred acres of pasture land. On account of the extreme heat of the day it was no light task to check the progress of the flames but volunteers responded from all sections and succeeded in putting out the fire not however before a tank, chicken house and barn, belonging to Mrs. McDaniell, was burned down and the house belonging to Ralph Murphy saved by the hardest fight. Many acres were burned over.
